Being Good Stewards of Our Religious Freedom

The Christian steward knows that gratitude is at the heart of stewardship. Indeed, gratitude lies at the heart of our spirituality; it's a primary door through which we enter into a relationship with our Creator. Having the freedom to deepen our relationship with the Lord offers us much for which to be grateful. And yet like so many things sublime and sacred, gratitude can be reduced to easy bromides or pious platitudes. Sometimes those of us in the U.S. reduce Independence Day, July 4, and the freedoms it represents, to just a good barbecue and fireworks show. Instead, Americans and all of us in the Western world should feel a renewed gratitude for the blessings of living in countries where our faith may be freely practiced, where we can freely assemble, and where we can stand up for justice without risking our very lives. Last year, Pope Francis cited the mounting waves of anti-Christian violence sweeping the world. The pope was referring in particular to the Christians in the Middle East when he asked us, "Am I indifferent to that, or does it affect me like it's a member of the family?" The instability and upheaval in countries like Syria and Iraq threaten the faithful. The Middle East, which was 20 percent Christian in the early 20th century, is now four percent Christian with that population steadily declining. Refugees fleeing persecution are at levels not seen since post-World War II. These are troubled times in our 21st century world. Religious intolerance and persecution are at a zenith, and much of it is directed against Catholics and other Christians. And throughout the world – China, North Korea, Sub-Sahara Africa, even India – Christians are a persecuted minority. Meanwhile, some are tempted during the warm summer months to take a "vacation" from Sunday Mass. Some travel and feel no necessity to find a local Catholic church. Some sit through Sunday's liturgy with golf or the swimming pool on their minds. Some elevate their kids' sports over Sunday worship. The Christian steward, however, realizes that somewhere around the world, others are being persecuted for the religious freedom so many take for granted. The Christian steward goes to Mass, and with much gratitude, prays in unity and solidarity with their brothers and sisters throughout the world who suffer for our shared faith in Jesus Christ.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A prominent theme in today's Gospel parable is generosity. Late at night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable for a friend to deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity.

Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God showers us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity to us. What should our response be to that generosity?

Décimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Un tema destacado en la parábola del Evangelio de hoy es la generosidad. Avanzada la noche, un amigo somnoliento responde a la petición de su vecino por comida para unhuésped inesperado. Jesús sugiere que sería impensable para un amigo negarse a un amigo en necesidad. Un amigo sin duda daría lo que el amigo le pide y más. A través de esta historia, Jesús ilustra la generosidad de Dios. Los buenos corresponsables son conscientes del extraordinario amor y bondad con las que Dios nos ha colmado. Nosotros nunca necesitamos convencer a Dios de ser generoso. Dios, es ese generoso amigo. Su abundante amor nos bañade su bondad. Esta semana, reflexione devotamente sobre la generosidad de Dios para nosotros. ¿Cuál debería ser nuestra respuesta a esa generosidad?

Wine Tasting & Auction 2025

Our Annual Wine Tasting & Auction is September 28, 2025-just 2 short months away! Tickets for this year's event will be available beginning August 2nd. Last year's event brought in more than $25,000. Thank you to all that helped us achieve this by buying tickets, donating items, bidding on items and working at the event.

It is not too early to start thinking about this year's event! Please give some thought to a silent or live auction donation. Use your imagination-the possibilities are endless. Visit your favorite places to do business and ask for a donation for our auction. If you are a professional, have a business, skill or trade or if you have relatives or friends who are, can they offer something for the live or silent auction?

Parties and dinners are very popular at the event. In the next few weeks the groups that purchased the Fiesta Mexicana Dinner for 8 will be enjoying a relaxing and delicious dinner and drinks here in the patio. This is a very popular and fun auction item. Get together with your friends and family and bid for it! The group who do win this item, bid for it each year-they really enjoy it!

Buy a gift certificate from your favorite restaurant and donate it. Tell the owner or manager what you are doing and I bet they will double the value!

Time at a Vacation home is always in demand.

Ask friends and family to attend the event.

If you are interested in helping at this year's event, we need help with set up, clean up, ticket sales, kitchen help and silent and live auction helpers. If you are interested in helping out in some way, please call the office.

Visita tus lugares favoritos para hacer negocios y solicita una donación para nuestra subasta. Si usted es un profesional, tiene un negocio, habilidad u oficio o si tiene familiares o amigos que lo son, ¿pueden ofrecer algo para la subasta en vivo o silenciosa?

Fiestas y cenas son muy populares en el evento. En las próximas semanas, los grupos que compraron la Cena Fiesta Mexicana para 8 personas disfrutarán de una relajante y deliciosa cena con bebidas aquí en el patio.
