Pentecost: The Holy Spirit at Work in the World

The feast of Pentecost is an annual reminder that the Creed we profess is not for the timid. It's not a part-time deal, a Sunday morning interlude, something we try to get around to when we're not so busy. Pentecost also reminds us, with mighty wind and terrifying flame, that as Christian stewards we must be all in to acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and be open to the Spirit's direction and power.

Throughout the history of Christianity we can see evidence of how the Holy Spirit continuously breaks out afresh in our Church and world. The Holy Spirit has awakened Christians from their complacency, led them into new frontiers of celebration, sacramentality and evangelization. The working of the Spirit continues to make forgiveness possible and transforms our lives. We believe that God's Holy Spirit has been poured out as a principle of unity to bring to completion the divine plan of salvation for everyone. Good stewards know that they must cooperate and not resist the work of the Spirit. Saint Paul tells us that there are characteristics by which we can recognize the Holy Spirit at work within each of us. These characteristics are called the fruits of the Spirit and they are: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control (Galatians 5:22).

These fruits are made manifest through our attitudes and actions in Church, among our neighbors, in the marketplace, the public square and in our use of social media. In his first Letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul also writes that no one can believe in Jesus Christ without the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:3). No one can even live as a disciple of the Lord without the Holy Spirit. No one can pray without him. We are convinced that when someone speaks or thinks well of another, the Holy Spirit is at work. When people do not think first of themselves but treat others as sisters and brothers, when they do not give up hope in God's promises for humanity and the world, God's Spirit is at work. Stewards know that the Spirit inspires trust, confidence and the energy not to be satisfied with what one has already accomplished. The Holy Spirit gives us the wisdom to follow the Gospel and put the Eucharist into action every single day. The working of the Holy Spirit, though, does not restrict or oblige people to do what they do not accept. God has given us the freedom to follow Jesus or not to follow him. Of course, the Holy Spirit will not be denied, but works most effectively through us when we are committed to the Gospel. If we open ourselves to the Holy Spirit we discover, often to our surprise, capabilities in ourselves of which we could hardly imagine. This in turn allows us to inspire others. In a world where there is so much conflict, divisiveness and polarization, even among Christians, good stewards have confidence that in the end, the Holy Spirit is going to win. The Feast of Pentecost is a feast celebrating stewardship, for it is a reminder for us to be ever vigilant to listen for the Holy Spirit's wisdom and allow ourselves to be guided by that wisdom as we seek to do the will of the Father whose plan will be fulfilled.

Pentecost Sunday

Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, the birth of the Church and the beginning of its mission in the world. Pentecost Sunday reminds us that our lives are filled with the Holy Spirit and that God has accomplished creative things in us through this gift. We have been entrusted with this great gift of the Holy Spirit. This great gift empowers us to be bold proclaimers of the Gospel in word and deed. It urges us to speak truth to power. It encourages us to use words and exhortations and even arguments that are meant to heal, show care and compassion and to reconcile. Now is a good time to ask: Are we being good stewards of this gift of the Holy Spirit? What creative things have we done to glorify God's accomplishments in us?

Domingo de Pentecostés

Hoy celebramos el don del Espíritu Santo, el nacimiento de la Iglesia y el comienzo de su misión en el mundo. El Domingo de Pentecostés nos recuerda que nuestras vidas están llenas del Espíritu Santo y que Dios ha logrado cosas creativas en nosotros a través de este don. Nos ha sido confiado este gran don del Espíritu Santo. Este gran don nos empodera para ser pregoneros audaces del Evangelio en palabra y en acción. Nos insta a decir la verdad al poder. Nos alienta a usar palabras y exhortaciones e incluso argumentos que están destinados a sanar, mostrar cuidado y compasión y a reconciliarnos. Ahora es un buen momento para preguntar: ¿estamos siendo buenos corresponsables de este don del Espíritu Santo? ¿Qué cosas creativas hemos hecho para glorificar los logros de Dios en nosotros?

As the earth puts forth its shoots and a garden causes its seeds to sprout, so the Lord GOD will cause his justice and praise to spring up in the sight of all the nations.

Isaiah 61:11

The Garden Ministry is making a comeback at Holy Eucharist! For many years the volunteers in the Garden Ministry took care of the many plants and gardens surrounding the church. The past few years much of the work has been done by a few dedicated volunteers-Paul Vitali, Connie Hernandez , Agustin Cortez and Pedro Manjarres. We owe them much gratitude. But it's time to reach out as a community and tend to the beautiful gardens God has blessed us with.

The Gardening Ministry will meet once a month-beginning in June-and other dates as needed to ready the yards for our celebrations and the change of seasons. We will meet the last Saturday of the month at 10 am.

We need volunteers of all ages! It is a wonderful time of fellowship and fresh air! All are welcome to participate – remember many hands make light work!

This ministry is for both the casual and the committed gardener, for those seeking to connect and serve in a group project, and for families looking for fresh ways to spend time together!

*Porque así como nacen las plantas de la tierra
y brotan los retoños en un jardín, así hará el Señor que brote su victoria
y que todas las naciones entonen cantos de alabanza*
Isaías 61:11

El Ministerio del Jardín está regresando a la Sagrada Eucaristía! Durante muchos años, los voluntarios del Ministerio de Jardinería cuidaron las numerosas plantas y jardines que rodean la iglesia.

En los últimos años, gran parte del trabajo ha sido realizado por unos pocos voluntarios dedicados: Paul Vitali, Connie Hernandez, Agustín Cortez y Pedro Manjarres. Les debemos mucha gratitud. Pero es hora de extender la mano como comunidad y cuidar los hermosos jardines con los que Dios nos ha bendecido.

El Ministerio de Jardinería se reunirá una vez al mes (a partir de junio) y en otras fechas según sea necesario para preparar los jardines para nuestras celebraciones y el cambio de estaciones.

Nos reuniremos el último sábado del mes a las 10 am.

¡Necesitamos voluntarios de todas las edades! ¡Es un tiempo maravilloso de compañerismo y aire fresco! Todos son bienvenidos a participar: ¡recuerde que muchas manos facilitan el trabajo!

¡Este ministerio es tanto para jardineros ocasionales como comprometidos, para aquellos que buscan conectarse y servir en un proyecto grupal y para familias que buscan nuevas formas de pasar tiempo juntos!

Traiga sus guantes y zapatos de trabajo, rastrillos y palas si los tiene. Asegúrate de invitar a un amigo. Todos son bienvenidos.
