Stewardship: A Disciple's Response – Reflections from Bishop Sylvester Ryan

Bishop Sylvester Ryan has deep roots in the Catholic stewardship movement. And when he speaks of the bishops' pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, he describes it as "poetry" and adds: "The pastoral letter never gets old." Why? "It's one of the most powerful expressions of a disciple's journey as it relates to stewardship," said the tall, silver-haired bishop emeritus of the Diocese of Monterey, California. And to be on a disciple's journey is a life-changing and all-consuming thing.

"A disciple is one willing to surrender himself for the sake of others," Bishop Ryan said. "Jesus is the example of discipleship, the example of one who dies to self. Stewards are always in the process of emptying ourselves."

Bishop Ryan was in attendance at the bishops' meeting where the pastoral was approved, and later served as the chairman of the stewardship sub-committee for the bishops' conference for eight years. He has warm memories of the man who inspired the document, Archbishop Thomas Murphy of Seattle. "He came to the conference and said, 'we bishops need to develop a spirituality of giving which offers a biblical concept of stewardship.'" He describes Archbishop Murphy as "one of the most charismatic men I've ever met. He had a great simplicity. He never had to be the center of attention." Bishop Ryan said the pastoral letter on stewardship influenced him greatly. "It gave me a way of looking at life that made sense, that provided purpose. Each of us has gifts that are indispensable, even when they are limited." Bishop Ryan's own discipleship journey began in high school, where he recalls a "scary" librarian, who, if she didn't see a book in your hand, would thrust one upon you.

One day, seeing him idle, she forced into his hands a biography of St. Damien of Molokai, the priest who lived in Hawaii among those afflicted with leprosy and later died of that disease. The book changed his life. "The thing that touched me was the moment he put his foot into a hot bucket and didn't feel it. The next Sunday, he began his homily, 'We lepers ...'"

That sense of accompaniment, of being present to people on their discipleship journeys, has never left Bishop Ryan and has inspired his own vocation. Although officially retired, he has spoken about stewardship. He especially likes to weave stewardship into his confirmation homilies, a topic he said is "so vital to that sacrament." And he loves to remind people that "once one chooses to be a disciple of Jesus Christ, stewardship is not an option."

Before his retirement, he and Bishop Robert Morneau of Green Bay, Wisconsin, one of the authors of the pastoral, would travel to seminaries to teach young men in formation about stewardship. Bishop Ryan said he would "love" to see that emphasis again.

"Stewardship is powerful in changing parish life," he said.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As the prophet Isaiah proclaims in the first reading, the Lord continues to remind us that we are his servants.

Imagine the Lord speaking these words to you personally:

"You are my servant. Through you I show my glory. I formed you as my servant from your mother's womb. I will make you a light so that you may shine the light of my salvation everywhere you go, and reveal my glory to everyone you encounter. I will give you the strength to do this. I will give you confidence. Heed my words, for I have spoken to you." What would your response be to the Lord? Would it be different from the response you give the Lord now?

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Como proclama el Profeta Isaías en la primera lectura, el Señor continúa recordándonos que somos sus siervos.

Imagine al Señor diciéndole a usted estas palabras personalmente: "Tú eres mi siervo. A través de ti yo muestro mi gloria. Yo te formé como mi servidor desde el vientre de tu madre. Yo haré de ti una luz para que puedas hacer brillar la luz de mi salvación donde quiera que vayas, y reveles mi gloria a todo aquel que encuentres. Yo te daré la fortaleza para hacer esto. Yo te daré la confianza. Atiende a mis palabras, porque a ti las he dicho." ¿Cuál sería su respuesta al Señor? ¿Sería diferente de la respuesta que usted le daría al Señor ahora?

January 22 is observed as the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.

*Most precious Lord,
You dwelt within the womb of your dear mother,
sanctifying the womb,
and elevating the dignity of all human life.
I pray today for the full legal protection of every unborn child. I also pray that every heart that supports abortion will be changed so as to experience the freedom that comes from living in the Truth.
I offer to You, this day, all my sufferings and sacrifices to help atone for every violation against human dignity committed through acts of abortion.
Please bring healing, hope, and freedom to all.
Mother Mary, pray for me.
Jesus, I trust in You.*

El 22 de enero se celebra el
Día de Oración por la Protección Legal de los Niños No Nacidos.

*Preciosísimo Señor, Tú habitaste en el vientre de tu querida madre, santificando el vientre y elevando la dignidad de toda vida humana.
Rezo hoy por la plena protección legal de cada niño no nacido.
También rezo para que cada corazón que apoya el aborto sea cambiado para poder experimentar la libertad que proviene de vivir en la Verdad.
Te ofrezco, en este día, todos mis sufrimientos y sacrificios para ayudar a expiar cada violación a la dignidad humana cometida a través de actos de aborto.
Por favor, trae sanación, esperanza y libertad a todos. Madre María, ruega por mí.
Jesús, en Ti confío.*

A Joyful Moment for Our Diocese: Installation of Bishop Ramón Bejarano

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With hearts full of gratitude and hope, the Diocese of Monterey is pleased to share that the Installation of Bishop Ramón Bejarano will take place on Thursday, February 19, 2026. This moment marks a significant and joyful milestone in the life of our local Church, and we are deeply thankful for the prayers, anticipation, and love already surrounding this occasion.

Because of the limited capacity of the installation venue, attendance at the liturgy will be by invitation only and, regrettably, will not be open to the general public. We understand that many of our faithful would wish to be present in person for this historic celebration, and we are sincerely grateful for your understanding as we navigate this unavoidable limitation.

While we may not all be able to gather physically, we remain united as one diocesan family in faith and prayer. Livestreaming details will be shared in the coming weeks, allowing all who wish to participate to do so prayerfully. We encourage you to visit the diocesan website and follow our official social media channels for updates and additional information as plans continue to unfold.

To the faithful of the Diocese of Monterey, please know that this celebration is only the beginning. In the weeks and months ahead, there will be many opportunities to welcome Bishop Ramón personally. He looks forward to visiting parishes throughout the diocese, celebrating the Holy Eucharist and the other sacraments — including Confirmations — visiting our Catholic schools, and spending time listening, praying, and walking alongside the people entrusted to his pastoral care.

As we prepare for this joyful day, we ask that you continue to keep Bishop Ramón and our diocesan family in your prayers. May this season be one of renewal, unity, and hopeful anticipation, as we entrust our Church to the guidance of the Holy Spirit and look forward to all that the Lord has in store.

Gratefully in Christ,

Un Momento de Gozo para Nuestra Diócesis: Instalación del Señor Obispo Ramón Bejarano

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Con el corazón lleno de gratitud y esperanza, la Diócesis de Monterey se alegra en compartir que la Instalación del Señor Obispo Ramón Bejarano se llevará a cabo el jueves 19 de febrero de 2026. Esta celebración marca un momento significativo y lleno de gozo en la vida de nuestra Iglesia local, y agradecemos profundamente las oraciones, el entusiasmo y el cariño que ya acompañan este momento tan especial.

Debido a la capacidad limitada del lugar donde se realizará la instalación, la asistencia a la celebración litúrgica será únicamente por invitación y, lamentablemente, no estará abierta al público en general. Sabemos que muchos de nuestros fieles desearían estar presentes personalmente en esta celebración tan importante, y agradecemos sinceramente su comprensión ante esta limitación inevitable.

Aunque no todos podamos reunirnos físicamente, permanecemos unidos como una sola familia diocesana en la fe y en la oración. Los detalles de la transmisión en vivo se darán a conocer en las próximas semanas, para que todos los que así lo deseen puedan participar de manera espiritual. Les invitamos a visitar el sitio web de la diócesis y a seguir nuestras redes sociales oficiales para recibir información actualizada conforme continúan los preparativos.

A los fieles de la Diócesis de Monterey, les compartimos que esta celebración es solo el comienzo. En las semanas y meses que siguen, habrá muchas oportunidades para dar la bienvenida al Señor Obispo de manera cercana y personal. Él espera con alegría visitar las parroquias de toda la diócesis, celebrar la Sagrada Eucaristía y los demás sacramentos —incluidas las Confirmaciones—, visitar nuestras escuelas católicas, y dedicar tiempo a escuchar, orar y caminar junto al pueblo que ha sido confiado a su cuidado pastoral.

Al prepararnos para este día tan especial, les pedimos que continúen encomendando al Señor Obispo Ramón Bejarano y a nuestra familia diocesana en sus oraciones. Que este tiempo sea para todos nosotros una etapa de renovación, unidad y esperanza, mientras ponemos a nuestra Iglesia bajo la guía del Espíritu Santo y esperamos con confianza todo lo que el Señor tiene preparado para nosotros.

Con gratitud en Cristo,
