Stewards of the Easter Season

Christ is risen! Indeed, He is risen!

If you're thinking this greeting comes a little late, since Easter Sunday was March 31, think again. As Catholic Christians, we celebrate the Easter season for seven weeks, until the fires of Pentecost once again inflame our hearts on May 19. Indeed, how could we not continue to celebrate this event that has changed everything for us?

It's easy to slip into a cultural way of thinking about our great feasts. Many people have the Christmas tree taken down at the end of New Year's Day, rather than waiting for Epiphany.

Likewise, most of us have long ago put the Easter decorations away.

But the Christian steward is aware of the beauty and meaning of the seasons in the liturgical calendar.

The Easter season remains a special time for recommitment to the Lord. One word for this period is "mystagogia," and those who were newly baptized at the Great Easter Vigil are especially familiar with this term. It literally means that we delve more deeply into the mystery of our faith. But exploring this mystery is not just an endeavor for new Christians. As we prepare for Pentecost, we prayerfully examine what the Resurrection means in our own lives.

For Christian stewards, it's a time to reevaluate how faith in the Risen Lord informs every aspect of our lives – how we labor, how we play, the way we pray, how we allocate our resources, where we spend our time, how we love, how we extend our compassion to others. If Christ is truly risen – an astounding and life-altering belief – then this Easter time brings immense joy and a continuing desire to know the Risen Lord.

The Scripture readings of the season are especially helpful. We hear once again the stories of the appearances of Jesus to his friends; how often they failed, initially, to recognize him in his glory. The Acts of the Apostles tell us of the struggles and the excitement of the new community of believers. We spent forty days in the penitential season of Lent. Now, we are embarked on fifty days of joyous celebration. Let us experience this joy throughout the Easter season, so that when we celebrate Pentecost, we may truly find our hearts on fire with the Holy Spirit.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Jesus offers a quintessential stewardship statement in today's Gospel reading: "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Jesus Christ offers us the fullness of eternal life. Do our lives reveal that this is what we want? Do we believe that by hearing the Word of the Lord and responding we not only produce "good fruit," but abide in the very life of God?

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

Jesús ofrece una declaración de corresponsabilidad por excelencia en la lectura del Evangelio de hoy: "Todo aquel que permanece en mí y yo en él dará fruto abundante, porque separados de mí nada pueden hacer." Jesucristo nos ofrece la plenitud de la vida eterna. ¿Son nuestras vidas la manifestación de que esto es lo que nosotros queremos? ¿Creemos nosotros que al escuchar la Palabra del Señor y responder a ella no sólo producimos "buenos frutos," sino que permanecemos en la vida misma de Dios?

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

We are offering Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Tuesday from 9:30 am-1:30 pm in the adoration chapel (we offer a communion service at 9 am), and on the last Sunday of each month we will be exposing the blessed Sacrament in the church after the 12 pm Mass (at 1:30 pm)

Eucharistic Adoration is adoring or honoring the Eucharistic Presence of Christ.

We encourage you to participate in this ministry and take some quiet time out of your busy day to spend with Christ. This is your personal time with Christ. We encourage you to give it a try.

There is a sign up sheet in the foyer of the church for Tuesdays, or just show up at 1:30 pm on the last Sunday of the month.

Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento

Estamos ofreciendo Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento todos los martes de 9:30 am a 1:30 pm en la capilla de adoración (ofrecemos un servicio de comunión a las 9 am), y el último domingo de cada mes estaremos exponiendo el Santísimo Sacramento en la iglesia después de la Misa de las 12:00 (a la 1:30 pm).

La Adoración Eucarística es adorar u honrar la Presencia Eucarística de Cristo. Lo animamos a participar en este ministerio y tomarse un momento de tranquilidad de su día ocupado para pasarlo con Cristo. Este es tu tiempo personal con Cristo. Te animamos a que lo pruebes. Vea si es algo a lo que está llamado a hacer. Hay una hoja de inscripción en el vestíbulo de la iglesia para los martes, o simplemente preséntese a la 1:30 pm el último domingo del mes.
