Be a Good Steward of Your Faith this Autumn

There's something wonderfully renewing about autumn, especially as it begins a new school year. It's all about new beginnings. Maybe it has something to do with new classrooms, new teachers, the great smell of brand new shoes and the smooth touch of that new backpack.

We remember those feelings of starting again even if it's been years since we walked through the school house door, and even if we don't have our own children heading off to the classroom this fall. We still get that heady feeling of new possibilities in the crisp autumn air. This is the perfect time to bring a sense of spiritual renewal to your life and to your family – the domestic church.

Autumn can truly bring out a new resolve to improve our lives as summer's freedom gives way to the structure of fall. For adults, faith formation classes and prayer groups are just forming in parishes. Check out the opportunities. With summer ending, many organizations are gearing up for new volunteers. Contact your local Catholic Charities or Habitat for Humanity to see how you might help out.

Think of the autumn season as a way to discover a new rhythm for your prayer life. If new activities can be scheduled into your daily life, start scheduling in more quality time for prayer. Fall is the perfect time to begin a 34-week Ignatian retreat, because if you start in September, the retreat-in-real-life schedule will conform to the liturgical year. For the children in your house, early to bed and early to rise means there may be more opportunities to be together for short prayer. Say a blessing at breakfast, or a brief morning offering as kids head out for the bus. Try to bring a more regular prayer schedule to your home. Pray with your children as you tuck them in, making the prayer personal and about the day's events. Make a resolve this fall to bring Christ more prominently into your family's daily routine. Make the stewardship of your faith and family a commitment as autumn brings a sense of renewal.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint Augustine, a doctor of the church, once wrote that he first, second, and third most important attitude in Christianity is humility. In today's second reading, Saint Paul is concerned with how we conduct ourselves in our community of faith. He urges us to let our conduct be worthy of the Gospel we say that we believe; and that it all begins with humility. He asks us to consider others better than ourselves, and to serve them by looking out for their best interest, not ours. Consider how Saint Paul's appeal to imitating Christ's humility can enhance your relationships

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

San Agustín, un médico de la iglesia, escribió una vez que la primera, segunda y tercera actitud más importante en el cristianismo es la humildad. En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo se preocupa por cómo nos comportamos en nuestra comunidad de fe. Nos urge a que nuestra conducta sea digna del Evangelio que decimos que creemos; y que todo comience con humildad. Nos pide que consideremos a los demás como mejores que nosotros y que les sirvamos velando por sus mejores intereses, no los nuestros. Considere cómo el llamado de San Pablo nos invita a imitar la humildad de Cristo para poder mejorar sus relaciones.

English Baptism

Our next English Baptism Preparation Class is November 7th, at 11:00 am. This class is required for parents and godparents participating in any baptism at our parish (and works for baptisms in other parishes).

To sign up for a baptism class, or if you need more information about baptism, please call the office, 722-5490.

Please join the Holy Eucharist Rosary Group. The group meets on Tuesdays at 10:30 am here in the church. All are welcome!
