Mother's Day: A Stewardship Reflection

When spring rain lets up, and May brings long hours of brilliant sunshine, something stirs within: the desire to tackle that dust we suddenly notice in places we seldom look. And those windows smeared with winter's muck? And that disorganized closet? There's a reason our grandmothers called it "spring housecleaning." The season brings an almost physical desire to get out the mop.

Surprisingly, for the Christian steward, this can actually be a spiritual impulse. There's something intrinsically renewing and revitalizing about cleaning. Everything done with a prayerful heart can lead us closer to God, and cleaning, often a solitary and contemplative task, can definitely include prayer. You might plan to begin your cleaning with prayer, and play music that lifts your spirit as you work. Start with a closet. Open your heart to what it tells you about how blessed you are materially. But observe the consumerism a closet can reveal. As you examine each item of apparel, remember and thank God for the graces of the occasion: a wedding, a graduation, a vacation. Enjoy "shopping" in your own closet for items you've forgotten about. Pare down what you no longer need or what you feel called to share. Wash, mend, iron and select a place where your items may find a good home. Many cities have refugee closets, and many nonprofits have thrift stores which support them. St. Vincent de Paul shops serve the poor with inexpensive used items. Pray for those with whom you are about to share.

Resolve to put your newly reorganized items to work for you and not rush out to buy more. And those windows? Does anything lift the spirit like a clean window after a long winter? As you polish those panes of glass, pray about where your own inner life could use a cleaning.

Perhaps you don't make it to the Sacrament of Reconciliation as often as you'd like. Use your quiet window cleaning time to examine the graces and challenges of your life. Thank God for the many blessings and be honest about failings. And that ubiquitous dust? It promises to return, afflicts the rich and the poor. It's a sign of our universal connection to the earth and the environment, a reminder of our own mortality.

Even the dust we clean can be lifted up to God with a thank you from a steward's grateful heart.

Please join the Holy Eucharist Rosary Group. The group meets on Tuesdays at 10:30 am here in the church. All are welcome!

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Philip understood very well Jesus' words: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." We learn of Philip's devotion to prayer, evangelizing and healing in the region of Samaria; made up of communities that would not be very receptive to the followers of Jesus. Philip is a model steward, living his discipleship day by day in the Lord without being obstructed by feelings of what cost his actions might entail. Good stewards summon the courage to proclaim the Lord and to serve Him by ministering to others. As an Easter people, eager to rejoice in the Lord, it is important to reflect on how we are living out our own commitment to discipleship.

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

Felipe entendió muy bien las palabras de Jesús: "Si tú me amas, guardarás mis mandamientos." Nosotros aprendemos de la devoción de Felipe para orar, evangelizar y sanar en la región de Samaria; formada por comunidades que no serían muy receptivas a los seguidores de Jesús. Felipe es un corresponsable modelo, viviendo su discipulado día a día en el Señor sin ser obstruido por sentimientos sobre el costo que sus acciones podría implicar. Los buenos corresponsables reúnen el valor para proclamar al Señor y servirle a través del ministerio hacia otros. Como pueblo de la Pascua, ansioso de regocijarse en el Señor, es importante reflexionar sobre cómo estamos viviendo nuestro propio compromiso con el discipulado.

Mother's Day:

A Stewardship Reflection

May 10 is Mother's Day and what theme is more universal than motherhood? We Catholics prize that nurturing relationship so highly that we call our Church, "Holy Mother," and we venerate Mary, the mother of Jesus, for her pivotal role in the life of our Lord and savior.

Yet, Mother's Day can bring with it a plethora of emotion and memories. Any mother can attest to the difficulty and challenge of the task of parenting. And mothers come in all shapes and sizes. Some mothers are birth mothers, some are adoptive. Some mothers are the grandmas or aunts who raised us. Some mothers left us far too soon.

Some mothers are the people we rebelled against; some mothers are the women we idolized. Most often, our mothers were probably both. It's a complex relationship, this parenting.

During the month of May, we honor and remember not just our own moms, but Mary, the Mother of God. We see her as the great symbol of motherhood and as our role model. Let us ask Mary's intercession, so that in our endeavors to be good stewards and to raise good stewards, to nurture in the faith those entrusted to us, she might come to our assistance and guide us with her motherly understanding. And on Mother's Day, we ask Mary to bless all mothers, especially our own.

Día de la Madre:

Una reflexión sobre la corresponsabilidad

El 10 de mayo es el Día de la Madre y ¿qué tema es más universal que la maternidad? Nosotros, los católicos, valoramos tanto esa relación enriquecedora que llamamos a nuestra Iglesia, "Santa Madre" y veneramos a María, la madre de Jesús, por su papel fundamental en la vida de Nuestro Señor y salvador.

Sin embargo, el Día de la Madre puede traer consigo una enorme cantidad de emociones y recuerdos. Cualquier madre puede dar fe de la dificultad y el desafío que representa la tarea de la crianza de los hijos. Y las madres vienen en todas las formas y tamaños. Algunas madres son madres biológicas, otras adoptivas. Algunas madres son las abuelas o tías que nos criaron. Algunas madres nos dejaron demasiado pronto. Algunas madres son las personas contra las que nos rebelamos; algunas madres son las mujeres que idolatramos. La mayoría de las veces, nuestras madres eran probablemente ambas. La maternidad es una relación compleja.

Durante el mes de mayo, honramos y recordamos no solo a nuestras propias madres, también honramos a María, la madre de Dios. La vemos como el gran símbolo de la maternidad y como nuestro modelo a seguir. Pidamos la intercesión de María, para que en nuestros esfuerzos por ser buenos corresponsables y criar buenos corresponsables, por nutrir en la fe a los que nos han sido confiados, ella venga en nuestra ayuda y nos guíe con su comprensión maternal. Y en el Día de la Madre, le pedimos a María que bendiga a todas las madres, especialmente a la nuestra.

May is Greeter Ministry Month

Greeters are a very important part of our worship experience. They welcome us when we arrive for Mass. They distribute and collect worship aids and pass around the baskets for collections.

They get volunteers to bring up the gifts, and help the faithful line-up to receive communion. Thank you to all that are involved in our Greeter Ministry.

We are hoping to inspire a few more of you to give the Greeter Ministry a try. This weekend May 9 & 10, some of our current Greeters will speak to you about their ministry. Please prayerfully consider joining this wonderful group.

Your community needs you! The Pastoral Council will be outside after each Mass to answer any questions you might have about serving and to help you sign up if you feel called to do so (and we are all praying that you will be called).

Mayo es el Mes del Ministerio de Hospitalidad

Los ministros de Hospitalidad son una parte muy importante de nuestra experiencia de culto. Nos dan la bienvenida cuando llegamos a Misa. Distribuyen y recogen las ayudas litúrgicas, y pasan las cestas para las colectas. Buscan voluntarios para llevar las ofrendas al altar y ayudan a los fieles a formar la fila para recibir la Comunión. Gracias a todos los que participan en nuestro Ministerio de Hospitalidad. Esperamos inspirar a algunos de ustedes más a probar el Ministerio de Hospitalidad. Este fin de semana, 9 y 10 de mayo, algunos de nuestros ministros actuales les hablarán sobre este ministerio. Por favor, consideren en oración unirse a este maravilloso grupo. ¡Su comunidad los necesita! El Consejo Pastoral estará afuera después de cada Misa para responder cualquier pregunta que puedan tener sobre el servicio y para ayudarles a inscribirse si sienten el llamado a hacerlo (y todos estamos rezando para que así sea).
